

To,
All Staff and Students,

Ref. No.: DSU/Circular/HR/Admin/2025/145

Subject: Invitation to “BEYOND THE BOOK: LET’S TALK” – Monthly Book Talk Activity (Session 3)

The Central Library is delighted to invite all DSU staff members to the Monthly Book Talk Series, organized exclusively for staff. This time, we will also host an exclusive talk on the Bhagavad Geeta in advance of Geeta Jayanti. This initiative aims to promote a strong reading culture, encourage meaningful intellectual exchange, and provide a friendly platform to share knowledge and literary insights.

Join us for an engaging morning where stories come alive, ideas flow, and conversations inspire!

Event: “Beyond the Book: Let’s Talk” – Monthly Book Talk Activity (Session 3)

Date: 29/09/2025 (Saturday)

Time: 11:00 a.m. to 12:00 p.m.

Venue: Auditorium Hall – G-003

Special Talk:

Bhagavad Geeta: “Philosophy for Today’s World” – Gyan, Karma, and Dharma

By: Dr. Dharmesh Sherathia - School of Science

Speakers:

1) Dr. Ruchi Joshi – School of Arts and Humanities

2) Dr. Kaushik Ravat – School of Arts and Humanities

Whether you are a lifelong reader or simply curious to explore new ideas, this event is designed to spark meaningful discussions—not only about books, but also the themes, experiences, and real-life connections they inspire.

Let’s go beyond the book—together.
